

Everything you need to be ready for Lent.

11th January '18 from 3.00-5.00pm. Sarum College, 19 The Close.

James Woodward, Principal of Sarum College, reviews the best of the new books and lent courses. Artist and author Tessa Wilkinson and musician and author Jan Brind will have simple and practical ideas to use with all age worship, messy church and family services as well as some different ideas for hymns to use during Lent. Tessa Wilkinson and Jan Brind are the authors of a number of books in the popular 'Creative Ideas' series. (Tessa apparently is amazing, and has wonderful, simple ideas. She is also the sister of the Revd. Simon Wilkinson so it would be especially nice to support her). Free entry, refreshments. RSVP by phoning 01722 326899 email bookshop@salisbury.ac.uk

Services in St.George's.

Many of you who have attended St.George's over Christmas will know there is no heating in the church. The boiler is old and it is very difficult to get parts. This is being treated as a high priority, and may result in us having to replace the heating system. Obviously this is going to take time and we understand the weather is due to get much colder.

The Standing Committee have therefore decided that for January the Sunday service will be held in the Church Hall. Thursday morning communion can continue in the church as this is only a small group and one heater can be used without it affecting the electric supply to the church.
