HAIR Written by Judi White and sent in by her husband Keith who added that he gets his hair cut regularly by his in-house stylist!!.

1. I need a haircut badly but there's nowhere I can go until lock down is over I will have to let it grow

2. My highlights need re-doing they are changing every day the ends are turning brassy blonde the roots 50 shades of grey!

3. I tried to give it a trim myself well, that was a mistake I thought a selfie haircut would be a piece of cake

4. Now it's all lopsided and I look a frightful mess I should have left it well alone and tied it back, I guess

5. I thought of shaving it all off in aid of charity but at my age it might not grow back to look like me!

6. Hurray, it's early summer so a big sun hat I'll wear now I needn't worry as no-one will see my hair!

Alison Coleman is well and out walking when she can. Spotted during the week walking around Churchill Gardens.

Christian Aid.

An enormous thank you to everyone who gave so generously to the Christian Aid week appeal and especially the two who walked and ran the parish boundaries and raised £495 in sponsorship! The quiz was well supported too.

The total raised so far in Salisbury is £15,274 with an additional £2,300 in gift aid. It is still not too late to give as I am still receiving notes and cheques. And don't forget to save those unwanted items for our Decluttered Sale!! Katharine Callard.
