Will you get a four-course meal – or something much simpler? Tickets for this event are £10 and will give you either a four-course meal with wine, or the sort of meal eaten by the poor all over the world. Climate change, and the disruption of grain supplies in Ukraine, are causing famine in parts of Africa. Help us raise money to send to Christian Aid in Africa. David Pain, previously in a senior post in Christian Aid, will speak about its far-ranging work.

Tickets (£10) are limited so do buy yours early. From Katharine Callard 01722 501200.
