

Sunday 4th September 2022
Season of Creationtide

READINGS

Luke 14: 25-33 P74
Exodus 3: 1-12 P51

POST COMMUNION

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ
may bring that healing to this broken world,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE DAY

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son
to save us: remind us of your goodness,
increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please PRAY for:

- ❖ Peace between Russia and Ukraine - pray for peace, for all those who have died in the war, those who mourn, those who seek refuge, and wisdom for all who lead.
- ❖ The people of Pakistan.
- ❖ Aid agencies, the work of the World Food programme and Disaster Emergency Committee.
- ❖ the Episcopal Churches in South Sudan and Sudan.
- ❖ all the parishes in the Salisbury Deanery.
- ❖ Staff and children at Harnham Junior and Infant schools, especially those who are beginning new schools and returning to universities in the next few weeks.
- ❖ Methodist Churches in Salisbury – St Edmunds Church Street and Roman Road.
- ❖ Members of Diocesan Synod as they meet to discuss important finance in the Diocese next week.
- ❖ Our church cleaners and flower arrangers.
- ❖ those who visit All Saints church during the Arts Trail, that they may not only see the beauty and creativity of artworks but sense the love and presence of God.
- ❖ those who live in Lower Street and Mallard Close.
- ❖ those who are sick, and all who care for them, especially Caroline, Paul James, Ann Parry, Kath Glover, Revd Simon Wilkinson, Bill, and Anne Baker.
- ❖ those who have died, especially Maroulla Bryan.

Work has started at Harnham Slope to fell the trees most severely affected by Chalara (Ash Die Back).

From Monday 5th September, the bottom footpath from the top of Folkestone Road to Parsonage Green Social Club will be subject to temporary closures to protect the public.

Please look out for signage and instructions from the tree surgeons on site. Other paths may be closed on occasions over the next few weeks and heavy machinery will be using the track up to the social club.

Sudan Garden Party

Sunday 4th September, 2-5pm

Cathedral School Grounds

In typical fete style, there will be a popular array of stalls; and, as ever, visitors will have a chance to get up close to camels!

The fete, is in aid of the Diocese of Salisbury Medical Link, and this year will be in the Cathedral School in the Cathedral Close.

The money raised at the fete will help the Medical Link continue to provide treatment for the people of Sudan and South Sudan, who suffer from high levels of malaria, pneumonia and other water-related diseases.

Open Evening of The Listening Place

Eighteen Years of Serving this Community in Salisbury and surroundings villages

Please join us at Salisbury Methodist Church, on Tuesday 6 September 2022, 6:45 for 7 pm

Guest Speaker: Detective Superintendent Darren Hannant, Wiltshire Police Hostage & Crisis Negotiator "Crisis Intervention." Light refreshments will be provided.

The Harvest table continues on Saturdays between 10.00am and 12 noon. The last week will be Saturday 24th September.

Rich World/Poor World Meal

Tuesday 18th October, 7.00pm – St Francis Church, Beatrice Road

Will you get a four-course meal – or something much simpler? Tickets for this event are £10 and will give you either a four-course meal with wine, or the sort of meal eaten by the poor all over the world.

Climate change, and the disruption of grain supplies in Ukraine, are causing famine in parts of Africa. Help us raise money to send to Christian Aid in Africa. David Pain, previously in a senior post in Christian Aid, will speak about its far-ranging work.

Tickets (£10) are limited so do buy yours early. From Katharine Callard 01722 501200.
