- for the communities of the Avon River Team.
- Messy Church team.
- wisdom in the use of light and heat in our homes.
- local farmers and the Livestock Market.
- those who live in The Crescent and Rowbarrow Lane.
- those who are sick, and all who care for them, especially Kath G, Simon W, Pam J, Anne B, Margaret R, Sharon S, Lizzie, Princess of Wales and King Charles III.
- those who have died especially those in our parish who serve in the military forces and those who have fallen serving King and Country.

Thank you Thank you to all who helped, made jams and jellies, crafts and attended the fair. Comments were on how much the music and friendly stall holders made it a great atmosphere with a wide range of the community attending. We raised £664.84. A great total! Thank you to the social committee for last week's special Patronal Meal which also raised money for the parish of approx. £300! Thank you to all who came along and made the Patronal service special and who spread the word of how good it was! I heard from dog walkers who weren't there how good it was!! Revd Becky.

Tuesday 12th November The new southern boundary fence will be installed in the parish hall car park. Parking only available to those using the hall.

COMMUNITY TEA, Sunday 17th November 3.00 – 5.00pm in the Parish Hall, Lower Street
