Thurs 15 May 19.00 for 19.30 All Saints, Harnham. LAMENTATIONS for Nakba Day
Special guest speakers. Rev Canon Jonathan Herbert, Hammadi Charif, Miranda Pinch, Rev Hilary Bond, Dean of Salisbury Nicholas Papadopoulos. Do come to listen and learn from these reflections on the Nakba of 1948 and subsequent events in Israel Palestine. (Miranda's mother was a secular Jewish refugee from the Holocaust in 1938 who was always bitterly opposed to what was being done to the Palestinians in her name as a Jew. Miranda travelled in the occupied territories of Palestine at the end of last year and will tell us some of what she witnessed. Dean Nicholas will have just returned from Jerusalem.)

21 May, 19:00, via Zoom Exploring God's Call (All welcome, Online) Has God been 'nudging' you to think about a more formal offering of yourself in ministry? There are lots of possibilities, so now is the time to take that first step by finding out more. It's a good idea to chat with someone from your local ministry team if you feel able to, but whether or not you've been able to do that yet, it's worth finding out as much information as you can. The Vocations Team runs a termly event on Zoom where anyone can book a place to hear from others involved in different ministries that the Diocese of Salisbury recognises through commissioning, licensing or ordination. To book follow the link: Exploring Gods Call

Churches of Salisbury and District book. Order by 23 May and get a £5 discount! St George's and All Saints were part of the 65 churches in Salisbury and the surrounding area photographed by Roy Bexton for John Elliott & Malcolm Sinclair. There are also historical essays on the roles of architecture and liturgy in church design, maps and suggested routes, and a guide to visiting churches. Published 12 June 2025 with a launch event at Salisbury Methodist Church. Further details at: <https://sarumchronicle.wordpress.com/churches>

THANK YOU!

To David Curzon and Richard Scott for organising the Parish Electoral Roll returns and to all who have returned them. We need a completely new roll for this year's APCM. We have received just over 90 forms so please check the draft list at the back of both churches & fill in a form if you are not on it. Ideally, we want to be over 100 - your form and help counts!! NOTE It's not too late if you have not given in your form. Do let us know!
