RIP: Jane Merian, Jill Tilley and their families.

Pastoral services...

- Michael Turner's grandson, Aston, is being married to his Norwegian fiancée Marie at St George's on Friday August 8th at 2 pm. It is a small English/Norwegian family wedding and we would be delighted if church members would care to join us for the ceremony to witness their marriage, pray for them, and wish them well in their new life in Norway. Please arrive and be seated if you can by 1.50 pm.
- It is with shock and sadness that we hear of the death of Jill Tilley, after a diagnosis of Pancreatic cancer. We rejoice that she is at peace in God's everlasting care. A service of thanksgiving for Hilda Jill Tilley's life will take place in St George's on Monday 11th August at 2pm.
- A Requiem Mass for Jane Merian will be held in the Cathedral on 28th August at 2pm followed by her burial in St George's Churchyard.

2pm SUNDAY 3rd August. AFTERNOON AT ALL SAINTS CHURCHYARD

We need hands on saints to help tend! Come for a cream tea at 3pm and bring shears and gloves to tend the graves and help out practically, whilst hearing some of the history of the churchyard.. Contact Richard Scott pccharnham@gmail.com (Last year we saved £3000 on churchyard maintenance due to the commitment of a few volunteers in keeping the churchyard hedges tidy, cutting grass, strimming, etc. which is part of what helped the parish overcome its deficit. WE NEED YOUR HELP. ASK NEIGHBOURS TOO)

THANK YOU!

A huge thank you to all of you who have volunteered to help out at the fun day and fete. And to all of you who have kindly donated bottles, biscuits, toys and treats for the hampers and for the stalls. Over 800 people enjoyed a great community and family event- with over 40 volunteers from Harnham Parish alone- not counting the Scouts / Uniformed organisations, Councils and the new Mayor of Salisbury. With thanks to all who helped especially Charles coordinating with Council, Emma with stall holders, Julie with moneys, Neil as site manager. A total of approx. £2500 was raised for crucial parish funds.

UNITED 10am Sung Communion Services in the summer. We are uniting every Sunday in August to give the wardens, servers, sacristans, and readers a well-deserved break.

HYMNS Our sermons in August will be about our favourite hymns and how they inspire faith and mission. Do you have a favourite hymn? We need your suggestions for hymns for the services in August and why you would like us to sing them. Fill in the slip of paper, email reverendbecky@gmail.com

SOUTH SUDAN

Archbishop Charles from South Sudan, writes that a lack of rain has meant crops have died and people are starving. He is organising a delivery of maize. If you would like to make a donation towards this cause, there will be a collection plate in church 3rd August. Alternatively you can donate to Harnham Parish via BACS marking your donation with the reference SUDAN. Harnham PCC, sort code 30-97-41, account no 00557482 Thank you. Revd Becky
