Remembering

In previous years we have been silent about women from Harnham who have died in the First World War. Many nurses who died as a result of their nursing are not officially remembered. And so this year, we will remember Nurse Dorothy Julia Rossiter, Dorrie, who died on 16th December 1914 aged just 22 years old. She died from cerebral meningitis, contracted whilst nursing Canadian soldiers in hospital. She is buried in All Saints' Churchyard, Harnham.
(With thanks to Liddy T and Helen Roberts.)

First Aid Training

– Wednesday 26 November (6.45 for 7pm- 8.30)

St John's Ambulance have kindly offered to run a basic first aid session for us. It is intended to help us decide what action to take in common situations e.g. trips / falls. We would like as many parishioners to attend as possible, especially those whose roles include volunteering as Church Warden; Sunday Warden / Welcomer; Messy Church; Community Teas; First Wednesday Talks etc. because it would be good to have one or two people who have received some training present at all church events. Venue – Parish Hall.
