From the Assistant Curate

Dear Friends,

October is a month that invites us to notice the changing world around us. The days grow shorter, the mornings cooler, and the trees begin to exchange their summer greens for the beautiful colours of autumn. As a family we have been collecting those gorgeous conkers that seem particular good this year! There is something both beautiful and poignant about this season. Autumn reminds us that change is a natural part of life, sometimes welcomed, sometimes difficult, but always bringing the possibility of something new.

This October feels particularly significant for us as a Parish as we say farewell to Reverend Becky, who has served our community faithfully for thirteen years.

Thirteen years is a long time in the life of a Parish. During those years, Becky has shared in our celebrations and our sorrows, been alongside people at moments of great joy and deep sadness, and become part of the many ordinary moments that make up our community.

We are deeply grateful for all that Becky has given to Harnham, and our thanks also go to Neil and their lovable dog Thelo.

As a Church, we are called to trust that God is present in every season. The month ahead will soon lead us towards Remembrance, when we pause to honour those who have given their lives and remember the sacrifices of generations before us. Then, before we know it, we will be rushing around the supermarkets buying advent calendars!

And so, as we enter this season of change, let us pause and give thanks. Let us give thanks for Becky's thirteen years of ministry, for Neil and Thelo, for friendship and fellowship, and for all those who give their time and gifts to the life of our parish. Whatever season of life we find ourselves in, whether one of beginnings or endings, joy or sadness, certainty or change, know that God is in the midst of it all.

May we have the courage to embrace what lies ahead, the grace to give thanks for what has been, and the faith to look forward with hope to all that is yet to come.

With every blessing,

Reverend Sophie

An Evening with Sarum Morris

Three words stayed with me after our September First Wednesday Talk: energy, sociability and joy.

"Energy" because it was an incredibly energetic evening. We were able to see a number of dances drawn from the Cotswold tradition of Morris dancing, and Richard Death, who spoke to us about the history and background of Morris, was himself extremely energetic. It was hard to remain still and, by the end of the evening, everyone was able to enjoy a special sitting down Morris dance. We're all Morris dancers now!

"Sociability" because its clearly a sociable activity in which people enjoy being together. But there's more than that. It links communities across the country and across the centuries. We learnt that there is documentary evidence of Morris dancing as early as the mid 15th century and this distinctively English tradition has continued since then. It was codified by the great folk music collector, Cecil Sharp in the late 10th century and today's dancers seek to hold to the steps and movements that he discovered then. We also learnt about the varied traditions which exist in different parts of the country: Border Morris, Standard clogging, Rapper and Molly dancing to name but a few.

One of the great controversies in Morris dancing concerns gender, there are those who believe it should be restricted to men but Richard was able to demonstrate that these folk dances have always included women, and often children too. In fact there are now more female Morris sides than male ones so don't let anyone tell you it's a male preserve.

Lastly, 'joy'. I asked the dancers why they did it and what it did for them and this was the word that characterised it for them. That's not a bad note on which to conclude is it?

Many thanks to Sarum Morris for a great evening.

October FWT

Wednesday 7 October, 7.30pm in the Parish Hall

“The Harnham Water Meadows:
A sustainable landscape with future challenges”.

We all know about the water meadows don't we? We may walk across the Town Path every day; we've been to the drownings demonstrations, and we know them as an abiding and delightful aspect of living in Harnham. We are so privileged to have our water meadows in Harnham.

Well, how much do we know? Maybe there is always more to discover, more to learn about our water meadows and the person who really does know more than anyone about them is Hadrian Cook. We're lucky to have the opportunity to hear from Hadrian at our next First Wednesday Talk and, as well as learning about their past and their purpose, we shall also have an opportunity to reflect on what the future might hold for this parcel of land that forms such an important part of the very essence of Harnham.

A Look Ahead to December's FWT.

When Michael Turner started FWT a couple of years ago, he made the last instalment of the year something rather special with a reading of “Under Milk Wood”. This year we're continuing that tradition but with a difference.

This year we're inviting everyone to make their own unique contribution to the FWT on 2 December. What could you do?

Here are some suggestions:

- Perform a musical piece (solo or with a group)

- Do a 'stand up' comedy act

- Sing a song (solo or with a group)

- Read (or even recite!) a poem or a piece of prose

- Get together with some other people to read a scene from a drama. That might be from a renowned playwright or maybe something original written specially for the occasion.

- Get together with others to write and perform a comic sketch

- Dance (solo or with a group)

- Do magic tricks

Harnham is full of resourceful people so you'll have lots of other ideas about what this last FWT of the year might include. Either way, it promises to be a great evening and a fitting tribute to Michael.

There's plenty of time to prepare so get cracking straight away!

I'll look forward to hearing what you'd like to do at our December First Wednesday Extravaganza, so do get in touch soon.

When did we see you ill or in prison and come to visit you? And the king will answer, 'Truly I tell you; anything you did for one of my brothers here, however insignificant, you did for me.' Matthew 25:39-40

The week of October 11-17 marks 'Prisons Week' with Prisons Sunday on October 11 when we remember all those unjustly imprisoned. We also remember those around the world whose human rights are ignored. Throughout the world MU initiatives seek to maintain relationships between prisoners and their families and demonstrate Christ's unconditional love for all.

Harnham Branch actively supports the Angel Tree Project, running since 2014, which, in conjunction with the charity Prison Fellowship, supports prisoners and their family relationships by funding Christmas presents that MU sends to their child or children. Each gift is sent as if from the parent in prison and is accompanied by a personal message written by the parent. MU members fundraise, purchase, wrap and post the presents.

ECO CHURCH

“These are the words of the Lord.

For crime after crime of the Ammonites I will grant them no reprieve, because in their greed for land they invaded the ploughlands of Gilead”.

Amos 1 v 13

The Season of Creation is over (Oct 4th), but I wonder if it has had any impact on your life and your lifestyle decisions?

The prophet Amos was bold and certainly didn't mince his words, and today we have the scientists warning us of the consequences of our lifestyles if we too don't change.

When Charles and I moved to Salisbury, we installed both solar hot water and solar PV panels, but our heating has been provided by a small gas boiler, which now needs replacing. There are so many options, we are spoilt for choice, but what is the right way forward, it is not easy. We have been debating the benefits of air source and air to air heat pumps, or simply to install another gas boiler. There are pros and cons for each option. We would love to know we are not depleting the earth of further fossil fuels but have to acknowledge that even air to air heat pumps expel hot air into the atmosphere, to keep a house cool in hot summers, and we all know a gas boiler emits carbon into the atmosphere, contributing to our global warming.

We have had many conversations with friends I guide with at the Cathedral, and it has been good to pool our discoveries, so hopefully we all move forward, changing our lifestyles and protecting the environment to the best of our abilities.

'The Limits to Growth' was published in 1972 and showed the consequences of continued global growth on environmental pollution, the exhaustion of the worlds' non-renewable resources of minerals and fossil fuels, plus the limit of food yields. The scientists advocated for a cessation of such growth by 1975. We have been warned, we have seen the consequences, and we in the rich west are beginning to experience for ourselves some of the results of our greed. I fear we still expect too much, still take too much and still scrap too much.

Can we learn to live more simply so others can simply live? It is worth looking at some statistics. The 2022 statistics for Africa stated 282 million people went hungry with 61% experiencing food insecurity, and 3% of children under 5 years of age suffering with stunted growth.

“Remember: sparse sowing, sparse reaping; sow bountifully, and you will reap bountifully. Each person should give as he has decided for himself;God loves a cheerful giver” 2 Corinthians 9 v 6-7

Autumn Nocturne

Chopin's quavers tumble in their chords,
Nocturnes gently soothing as they play;
Arpeggios – saying more than words
As autumn shades replace the summer day.

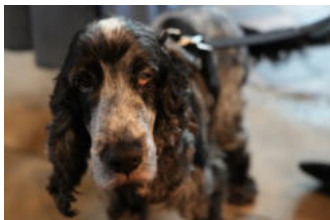

Sapphire skies give way to rainy grey
The heat is gone from damp and misty air,
The maple sheds its fire of yesterday
The moonlight shines on boughs now stark and bare.

Hands of gentle skill caress the keys,
The nocturne soothes our spirits as it's played.
We sigh not for the baring of the trees
Nor for the coming of the winter shade.

Forgotten soon the frozen frosty ground
The mem'ry stowed beside our winter coats;
As warm we sit, enfolded by the sound
Of Chopin's Nocturne and his graceful notes!

13 September Revd Becky's Farewell

A final word from Revd Becky.....

A huge thank you for making our final Sunday in Harnham so memorable. Thank you to all who had put such thought and effort into planning and preparing the day. Thank you so much for the kind words and cards and gifts - the flowers, oil stocks, and money towards pottery, and whisky. There was a piece of blue pottery which is on our mantelpiece until we move. We know some of you were unable to come along to the services, you were in our thoughts and will all continue to be in my prayers.

And the party... such a wonderful time to socialise and enjoy pizza and snacks. I know some of you were dancing to the band!! Thank you for joining in the fun.

Revd Becky and Neil

p.s. A copy of my final sermon is available in both churches or can be requested from Monica in the Parish Office.

Wordsearch for St Luke

To St Luke, whose feast-day is 18th October, we owe a beautifully written gospel as well as the Book of Acts. He was a Greek physician and faithful travelling companion to St Paul. Under house arrest near the end of his life Paul noted, 'only Luke is with me'. Luke's gospel focuses on the compassion of Christ, and offers us moving parables, such as the Good Samaritan and Prodigal Son. Women figure more prominently in Luke's gospel than in any other: look out for the extended story of the Virgin Birth, and stories of Mary, Elizabeth, and the woman who was a sinner. His gospel also features more poor people, more lepers, more 'sinners', who are all shown to be 'inside' the love of Christ. In Acts, Luke skilfully links sacred and profane history, as subsequent archaeology has shown. He tells of how the early Christians moved away from Jerusalem into the pagan world, and especially on to Rome

Learn, Laugh, Live

As a writer and contributor to local newspapers and magazines I was well aware of the third age movement. I had interviewed the founding members of what is now a very large u3a, witnessed how their group operated and grew. So I knew what u3a stood for and how much it offered to people no longer in full time work.

Even when retirement seemed a long way off I knew it was something to look forward to. I had seen how u3a members had rich and fulfilling lives.

A quick look at our website, especially the Groups and Newsletter pages, will show you just how much Spire u3a offers. <http://spire.u3asite.uk>

Ian Merriman was so concerned that he would lose his extensive social network when he retired that he joined u3a while he was still working. He says: "Getting involved with u3a has provided me with a positive transition between a long working career and retirement."

Ian Cassidy, u3a CEO, points out that: "With the right opportunities to learn, belong and take part, life beyond f/t work can be active, connected and full of purpose. For many it can become one of the richest and most fulfilling periods of life."

The September meeting in the Memorial Hall, welcomed a speaker from Windsor who had made it his business to investigate and photograph art on the London Underground. His talk left members both impressed and entertained - having had a wonderful lesson into how to look around us.

During u3a Week, also in September, the Spire u3a committee laid on some extra social events to add to our wellbeing - a cream tea with appropriate readings from literature, a men's breakfast, a picnic in The Close followed by an opportunity to see an embroidery demo and a morning walk round the city finishing with coffee and cake. What's not to look forward to?

Learn, Laugh, Live; think better - age better.

Prayer for October

Father,

Thank you for your written Word to us in the Bible, inspired and interpreted by your Holy Spirit. Thank you that from beginning to end it reveals Jesus, the living Word, sent by you to rescue us from the mess of selfishness and disobedience.

May we treasure your revelation to us and allow you to guide us by it through the confusion and pain of this world, confident that your Word is unchanging and powerful and trustworthy.

In Jesus' name, Amen.
