A word from…Revd Sophie Ferguson, Assistant Curate

As we look ahead to the Season of Remembrance, we enter a particularly special time of year. From the end of October through November, we are invited to pause, reflect and remember those who have shaped our lives and those we hold dear. As we move from All Saints' to All Souls' and then to Remembrance Sunday, these weeks offer us opportunities to give thanks, to honour lives lived and sacrifices made, and to hold one another in prayer. We are reminded of the importance of hope, love and the light that faith brings, even in times of sadness.
I hope you will join us at our services and gatherings over the coming weeks, as we come together as a parish to remember, give thanks and find comfort in our shared faith and community. With every blessing, Revd Sophie

In our prayers, please pray for…
